MANY ATTEND MEETINGS

Pledge Which New Members Take Sets Forth High Aims Of The Association.

One hundred fifty girl students became members of the Y. W. C. A. in an impressive meeting at the State Teachers' College this morning. The organization now has the largest membership in its history.

"More girls are interested this summer than ever before," said Miss Alice Peery, president. We have large crowds at our weekly meetings and peppy programs. We expect to send four delegates to the national conference at Estes Park, Colo., this summer".

The first number on the program this morning was a series of songs, by Miss Opal Kent. Miss Peery, the presiding officer, told in story form the origin of the ceremony used when new members are received, dating back to the time of the Crusaders, who carried a lighted candle from Palestine to Florence. The new members were then given white candles which lighted from the big blue candle of the Y. W. C. A., and the pledge of service was administered. Miss Helen Dean played appropriate music on the piano.

The rest of the hour was spent in getting acquainted. Punch was served to the new and old members by Misses Ruth Miller, Ora May Condon and Dorthy Rowley.

The pledge which the girls take when they become members sets forth the fourfould aim the Y. W. C. A. as follows:

"To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ; To Lead them into membership and service in the Christian church; To bring them up in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible; To influence them to devote themselves in united effort to make the will of Christ effective in human society, and to expand the Kingdom of God throughout the world."

A. are as follows: president, Alice Peery; vice-president, Margaret Remus; treasurer, Mary Condon; secretary, Anna Mae Gillis; undergraduate representative, Mabel Cook; chairman of the social committee, Ruth Miller; community service, Helen Dean; news representative, Sylvia Ratcliff; chairman of world fellowship, Alyn Willis; chairman of devotions committee, Elizabeth Leet.

GRADING OF WOOL SHOWS HIGHER GRADES THIS YEAR

Farmers Are Sending Better Grades to Pool Than in 1920—Sheridan to Ship a Car

Grading of wool in the warehouse of the Northwest Missouri Wool Pool at St. Joseph has begun, and the results indicates a higher average grade of wool than last year, says R. A. Kinnaird, county farm agent, who was in St. Joseph yesterday. There has been very little burry and chaffy wool in the lots graded thus far, he says.

More than 350,000 pounds of wool are in the warehouse already. This is more than the total pooled last year. It is expected that there will be half million pounds in the warehouse before the end of the summer.

County Agent Kinnaird will go to Sheridan next Tuesday, June 28, to assist William Allyn in laoding a car of wool to be shipped to the pool from that vicinity.

A. F. L. Demands Punishment of British Forces Who Commit Atrocities —Victory for Gompers

A resolution demanding recognition of the Irish Republic and trial punishment of British "auxiliary forces" responsible for atrocities in Ireland was adopted by a viva vice vote. The vote was a victory for Gompers and the resolutions committee.

There were also 171 Indians, 135 Japanese, 412 Chinese and 52 others. The ratio of males to females went down to 102.5 to 100, compared to 105.1 in 1910.

DR. BERTHA LININGER SEES TWO FLOODS IN COLORADO.

Conditions in the flooded districts of Colorado cannot be exaggerated, says Dr. Bertha Lininger, who has returned from a trip to Pueblo and other points in Colorado.

Dr. Lininger left Maryville the day before the flood, and it was thirteen days before she could get into Pueblo. The devastation in the wake of the flood was hardly touched upon by newspaper accounts, she says.

After leaving Pueblo, Dr. Lininger went to Fowler, Colo., to visit her mother. Returning over the Santa Fe railroad, she passed through another flood at Lamar, where the track was washed out immediately after her train had passed over it.

BREAKS AT WATER PLANT ARE ALL REPAIRED TODAY.

City water is again being delivered to consumers through the normal channels after accidents which interfered with the operation of the pumping plant yesterday and Monday.

An electric generator was broken Monday and it was necessary to use the fire pumps to force water from the fire reservoir. The generator was repaired that evening, but a pulley wheel on a pump was broken at the plant early yesterday morning, again rendering the pumps useless.

Water was pumped direct from the river while the pumps were being fixed. It was forced through the filters, however, and was fairly clear. All repairs were made and the plant operating normally this morning.

Mrs. Stauble Better.

Mrs. Rosanna Stauble who has been ill at her home on East First street, is now improving.

BEE HIVE SHOE STORE IS ROBBED OF SHOES AND HOSE

Thieves Force Entrance Through Back Door, Taking Goods Valued At $400

Forcing entrance through the back door, robbers last night secured shoes and silk hose valued at $400 from the Bee Hive Shoe store. They also took about $5 from the cash register of James Carpenter, photographer, who has his office in the store, some American Legion buttons and keys from the desk of John Mutz, and some small change from the store's cash register.

The back door was fastened with a floor bolt and a bolt near the top and propped with a heavy wooden bar. A panel was knocked off one of the doors near the bottom, the bar removed and the floor bolt lifted, after which the door was pushed open.

The loot consisted of thirteen pairs of men's high grade shoes, retailing for $15 a pair, and almost every pair of men's silk hose in the store. Both shoes and hose were of varying sizes. Women's silk hose were not disturbed. In the desk from which the American Legion buttons were stolen was a small amount of money which was overlooked. No effort was made to enter the store's safe. The shoes taken were removed from the boxes, which were piled on the counter, but the hose were not taken from the boxes.

The Bee Hive store was robbed in a similar manner two years ago, with a small loss. W. A. Miller is the proprietor of the store.

SPECIAL MESSAGE TO LEGISLATURE

GOVERNOR ASKS RE-ENACTMENT OF THREE LAWS

JUDICIAL - COUNTY UNIT

Altogether, Twenty-three Subjects in Addition To Road Legislation Are Suggested

Jefferson City, June 22.—"The referendum has paralyzed progress in Missouri for two years," Governor Hyde declared today in his opening message to the special lesson of the legislature.

"The situation is monstrous—without parallel. Never before has such a vicious assault upon representative government been made. Seventy thousand people have defied the rsults of an election in which 1,300,000 voters participated. The fact that the referendum would plunge the state government into chaos did not stop them. They coolly calculated, and then launched the blow, regardless of consequences."

Asks Initiative-Referendum Curb

The governor recommends that the initiative and referendum be replaced or modified.

The message permits the legislature to enact laws on twenty-three subjects in addition to the road legislation on the 60 million dollar road program for which the special session was called. Most of the questions are submitted without recommendations.

The legislature probably will enact laws only a part of the subjects. To provide for everything in the message would keep the members here until early winter, it is predicted.

Urges Re-Enactment of "Big Three"

The governor recommends that the county unit laws, the judicial redistricting law and the consolidation law creating a department of public welfare, held up by referendum, be re-enacted. His reason for the re-submission is because of the chaos by the referendum of those particular measures. The governor advises that nothing be done on the other bills against which the referendum was invoked.

A sweeping reduction of tax levies is recommended. The governor mentions the income tax, the corporation franchise ,the inheritance, the blind pension tax, the levies for state purposes.

The governor also will permit the legislature to enact an anti-lynching law and a rent profiteering measure, provided the members believe that regulation of rent will not stifle new building.

Other subjects discussed:

The subject of providing laws and regulations governing the special election to be held in August, 1921.

The subject of reducing the rate of the inheritance tax.

The subject of appropriations.

The subject of specifying the salaries of the members of the board of permanent seat of government.

The subject of giving the right of eminent domain to state institutions and state departments.

The subject of warehouse regulations, grain inspection and weighing and providing salaries for officials engaged therein.

The subject of limiting the salaries or compensation permitted by law to assessors and collectors.

BUCHANAN COUNTY FARMERS ENDORSE GRAIN GROWERS

R. A. Kinnaird Attends Meeting at Which P. E. Donnell Explains Plan of Com. of Seventeen.

R. A. Kinnaird, county farm agent, attended a meeting at St. Joseph yesterday at which Judge P. E. Donnell explained the grain marketing plan of the United States Grain Growers, Inc., to an audience of farmers and county agents. After the address, the plan was unanimously endorsed.

One man in the audience who has had a life long experience with dealings on the board of trade said, after hearing the explanation of the plan that there is no reason why it will not succeed if the farmers get behind it in a financial way. He explained how manipulators on the grain exchange tamper with the market in such a manner that it would effect the farmers. He expressed his opinion that the market manipulators would be powerless against the $100,000,000 finance committee backing the U. S. Grain Growers.

DISREGARDS WARNING OF SHERIFF AND IS ARRESTED

Ernest Glass Will Be Tried on Charge of Running Automobile With Cut-Out Open

Ernest Glass, living near Barnard, was arrested this morning on a charge of running his car with cut-out open. He gave bail for his appearance at the September term of circuit court.

Glass was running his car with cut-out open in Barnard yesterday afternoon while Sheriff Roach was in that town. The sheriff warned Glass that it was against the law to run his car with cut-out open and that if it was done again he would have to arrest him. Glass, it is said, failed to heed the warning and started down the business street of Barnard with his cut-out wide open. Sheriff Roach had Glass arrested this morning.

ART DEPARTMENT PRESENTS EXHIBIT

COVERS A WIDE RANGE

Subject Matter Includes Charcoal Studies, Pen and Ink Sketches and Commercial Work

In cases on the main corridor of the State Teachers' College building approaching the assembly room, is the annual exhibit of the department of fine arts. The work is most interesting, both in the scope of the subject matter covered and the perfection of each piece, and warrants careful examination.

Perhaps, first for attention is the head of the Greek god, Aeneas, the charcoal studies of vases followed by the painting in water color of holly hocks and of a view in the studio with sunlight fitting across the floor.

The commercial art classes are well represented with practical examples of advertisments of stnadard commodities, done with a view to reproduction as well as to immediate use in window card writing. Much of the work of the class, especially that of show window display, is impossible to show in such an exhibit.

Four charming sketches in pen and ink, one of the college library and the others of the campus, are well executed in themselves and also aid in the production of the high school annual.

Many will be particularly interested in the plans of the grounds showing the best placement of the house in the lot and the planting of trees and bushes. House plans also indicate the shape of rooms, allowing for the housewife much desired closet space and the economical use of constructive materials. In the center of the west case are the sketches for costumes for young and old, plump and thin, blonde and brunette, and with them designs for beading of bags and embroidered scallops and initial letters.

Harold Stafford, Nell Hudson, Richard Kirby, Alice Peery, Ada Dinsmore, Edith Shoemaker, Mary Wooldridge, Ferd Masters, and Grace Tebow are some of the students whose names are in evidence.

In addition to the exhibit in the cases, the Art Department keeps on display in its rooms on the fourth floor a permanent exhibit of sculpture, pictures and current student work much of which is of great interest and all are cordially invited to visit the department and view the work at any time.

What Missouri Farmers are Doing

R. L. Furry of Carrollton has been employed as County Agent to serve for the remainder of the year in McDonald county. The McDonald County Farm Bureau is one of the newer, up-and-coming county organizations in Missouri.

The Executive Committee of the Scott County Farm Bureau has decided to stage an intensive membership campaign during the latter part of July. Scott county now has 602 members and an effort is to be made to make the total 1,000.

Shorthorn and Hereford breeders of Linn county—thirty-nine of 'em—have organized a county breeders' association. An executive committee was elected and authorized to arrange for the sales and exhibits of cattle. Members of the association plan to work actively for the replacement of scrub bulls.

A working agreement between the executive committee of the Scott County Farm Bureau and the threshermen of that county has been perfected. The threshermen have agreed not to charge more than 7 cents a bushel for threshing this year's wheat crop.

The Jackson County Wool Growers' Association at an annual sale held last week disposed of the 1920 and 1921 wool clips at a price that averaged 20 cents a pound for the better grades.

Jasepr county farmers, operating through their farm bureau organization, are hard at work preparing a Farm Bureau exhibit with which they hope to again capture the blue ribbon at the state fair at Sedalia. A number of other counties are preparing farm bureau exhibits and with the increased premium list that has been offered by the Fair management, the competition should be rather keen.

C. E. Brown, the new County Agent in Carroll county, is a young man, a graduate of the State College of Agriculture. He went directly from the college to his work and already has "swung into the collar" and started a lot of good work.

The headquarters office of the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation is in receipt of a request, forwarded by the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation secretary, for 100 bushels of crimson clover seed. Farmers with this seed should notify the secretary of the M. F. B. F. at Columbia, giving price, pureness and germination. The information will be forwarded to the Iowa people.

Nearly a third of a million pounds of wool already has been received at the Northwest Missouri Wool Pool at St. Joseph, according to a report of John McDaniel, manager of the pool. Grading was started Monday, June 20, the same grading system as that used last year being employed. The pool has taken up the bonded warehouse plan and will adopt it, providing the pool can qualify.

Damage done by striped beetles and green melon lice is being reported from several sections of the state. Leonard Haseman, entomologist of the University of Missouri, in response to a request for information, writes that a spray solution made of one tablespoon full of nicotine sulphate and one tablespoonfull of powdered arsenate of lead, be used in both upper and under sides of plant leaves if possible. Drenching the plants with this solution will in most cases check the ravages of the pests Mr. Hasemen declares.

Considerable confusion has resulted in some sections regarding the scope of activities of the Southeast Missouri Agricultural Association. That organization is not a part of the Farm Bureau Federation, although it is working in perfect harmony with the farm bureaus. Briefly, the Southeast Missouri Association is a colorization project, with eight counties co-operating to try to increase the immigration to that section of the state. In other words, the Farm Bureau operates to help the farmers and the Southeast Association is to help get more farmers to help.

Membership in the Lewis County Beekeepers Association, a Farm Bureau project, has increased 300 per cent since the association was organized. County Agent C. W. Vetter reports.

The Cass County Farm Bureau is operating a labor exchange during the harvets season. The same thing is being done in a number of other counties, notably Cole, which has one of the newest farm bureaus in the state.

Missouri farmers are receiving from the northern milling interests a lot of propaganda asking their aid in obtaining a modification of the wheat tariff to permit the milling of Canadian wheat in bond. Farmers are advised to give this matter careful consideration before writing the letters suggested by the millers, for if their proposal were to be enacted into law it is very doubtful if the millers would need as much American wheat, as they otherwise would. The millers have used statistics that are the most part seven to ten years old in preparing their argument.

The Pike County Livestock Association shipped twenty cars of stock valued at $31,003.10 in May from the Frankford association alone. The Curryville association shipped 24 cars valued at $33,222.41 and the Bowling Green Association shipped 81 loads valued at $109,279.67, a total of 125 cars valued at $173,505 for the county. It is reported that the average expense of handling hogs, which made up the major portions of the shipments, was 65 cents a hundred pounds.

Dairy farmers of Lawrence county are planning the formation of a cow testing association. Dairy experts from the Colelge of Agriculture have been called by the Farm Bureau and an association is to be formed the last week in June.

Duroc-Jersey breeders of Cass county perfected a County organization at a meeting held at Harrisonville, Saturday, June 18.

County Agent Nicholson of St. Charles report sthat would-be harvest hands are refusing to work on farms in that county unless they are provided with some means of getting to town each night.

Farmers of Madison county made a tour through St. Francois county last week, in order to view some of the dairy and beef cattle in the lattre county. The tour was conducted unde rthe joint auspices of the two county farm bureaus.

R. D. Jay, County Agent in Chariton county, reports that in the last four months he had held more than 50 meetings, addressing more than 2,500 farmers. As most of the meetings were held at night, the days were spent visiting farmers on their farms and attending to the detail work in the office. More than 100 personal visits to farms were made and nearly 500 letters were written from the office at Keytesville.

Jewell Mayes, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture is urging Missouri farmers to save their blue grass seed this year, pointing out that the prospects for a seed crop is encouraging either in Missouri or Kentucky. The state board is prepared to furnish free information regarding gathering the seed.

The Lafayette County Farm Bureau is planning the second annual motor car tour for the boys and girls to visit the stock farms of Jackson county. County Agent F. W. Caldwell reports that 72 Holstein calves have been purchased and distributed to boys and girls of Lafayette county who contemplate joining calf clubs.

Miss Helene Bold has succeeded Miss Eva Beterf as home demonstration agent in Lafayette county, Miss Beterf resigning after a year of service in the county.

Stoddard county stock raisers are fast joining the ranks of the purebred enthusiasts. J. A. Montgomery recently imported a fine bull from Farmington and numbers of other farmers and stockmen are turning to purebred stock raising every week. The Stoddard County Farm Bureau, which is one of the strongest in the state with 1,157 members, is encouraging the stockmen in this plan.

WOMAN ACTS AS SPEAKER

Representative Alice Robertson of Oklahoma Presides Over House

Washington, June 22.—For the first time in history, according to official records, a woman presided Monday over the house of representatives, Miss Alice Robertson, a Republican member from Oklahoma occupying the chair for about ten minutes.

She was greeted with applause and cheers when Representative Walsh, Republican, Massachusetts, who was presiding in the absence from Washington of Speaker Gillett invited her to wield the gavel.

The roll was being called at the time on a resolution providing for creation of a commission to represent the United States at the Peruvian centennial celebration. Somewhat embarrassed, but in a clear voice, Miss Robertson announced the vote and relinquished the chair before any member had occasion to address her as "Miss Speak".

Fabric line, the Usco has earned a reputation for quality and dependable economy which is not exceeded by any tire in its class.

Which one of your neighbors gets the best mileage out of his tires?

EVERY once in a while you hear a motorist say as he kicks a rear tire with an admiring foot, "there's a lucky tire!" Give him a chance and he'll tell you all about it. And then you'll find that what he calls "luck" is simply his first experience with a quality standard tire.

* * *

It all comes to this—buy a U. S. Tire anywhere in this country and you get definite, predictable value for your money no matter what weight car you drive.

For the first time he will hear some straight quality tire facts—and get the difference between chance and certainty in tire buying.

Use Mushrooms.

New mushrooms are coming in, and for company dinners a few fresh mushrooms add greatly to the elegance of a dish and are not costly.

When you consider that a half pound will season a good-sized dish of chicken, and a quarter-pound will be quite enough for a pint of sauce.

Parsley and fresh green peppers add a great deal to the lighter meat dishes.

Later in the month serve broiled tomatoes, fried eggplant or squash in place of eggs for breakfast. Chafing-dish luncheons are attractive and are very helpful these hot days. Creamed chipped beef, chicken a la king, crab meat in any number of attractive dishes that can be prepared quickly and easily in a good chafing dish.

LOTS OF EMPTY SEATS THIS TIME WHEN REED TALKS

Room Was Packed as Senator Spoke Last Time to Missouri Assembly.

Jefferson City, June 22.—In contrast to his last speech here two and a half years ago, when the galleries and floor were packed, United States Senator Reed spoke late yesterday before a joint session of house and senate in representatives hall with two of the three galleries about half filled and the third gallery barely filled. During his previous speech denouncing President Wilson, about twenty Democrats, lead by former Representative Frank H. Faris of Rolla, walked out and adopted resolutions reading Reed out of the party. Farris was beaten for election last fall. There are only thirty-four Democrats in the house now.

There was no Democratic rush to welcome the senator. A. L. McCawley of Carthage, Democratic lawyer, who helped Gov. Hyde draft his department consolidation bills, was the only one to meet Reed at the station. Senators Kinney and Brogan arirved with him on the train from St. Louis.

Lieut.-Gov. Lloyd presided. Representative Hopkins, Republican, and Joyce, Democrat, and Senators Casey, Democrat, and Seneker, Republican, escorted Reed to the rostrum. Applause as Reed entered came entirely from the Republicans.

GRADING OF WOOL SHOWS HIGHER GRADES THIS YEAR.

Grading of wool in the warehouse of the Northwest Missouri Wool Pool at St. Joseph has begun, and the results indicate a higher average grade of wool than last year, says R. A. Kinnaird, county farm agent, who was in St. Joseph yesterday. There has been very little burry and chaffy wool in the lots graded thus far, he says.

More than 350,000 pounds of wool are in the warehouse already. This is more than the total pooled last year. It is expected that there will be half a million pounds in the warehouse before the end of the summer.

County Agent Kinnaird will go to Sheridan next Tuesday, June 28, to assist William Allyn in loading a car of wool to be shipped to the pool from that vicinity.

Mr. Hughes goes to Brush to assist hi sson-in-law Frank Childress in managing a grocery store which they purchased from Rufus Smith, who will return to his home at Arkoe.

A NEW COUNTY UNIT MEASURE IS READY

Bill Prepared by Sam Baker Is Similar to Law Enacted at Last Session.

Jefferson City, June 22.—A new county unit school bill following in general the law passed at the regular session of the legislature and now suspended by the referendum has been prepared by Sam Baker, state superintendent of schools. He will ask the governor to submit the question of re-enactment of the bill at the special session.

The new bill merely changes the dates on which elections shall be held, and permits the law to become operative immediately after going into effect.

"One provision of the law suspended is that bonds issued after March 1, 1921, by any school district, under the county unit bill, shall not be assumed by the county board," Mr. Baker said today. "With the county unit law now in doubt, no school district will be able to sell its bonds, and the districts affected will not be able to make improvements until after the election of November, 1922. That will be disastrous to the rural schools of the state."

The county unit law suspended by the referendum provides that elections shall be held and the measure put in effect on certain dates, prior to the election in 1922. Unless the dates are changed or eliminated there is a question whether the new school law could be made operative after being approved by the voters at the next general election.

To Visit at Fort Collins.

Mrs. Roy Curfman and children, Virginia and Robert, will leave Saturday for Fort Collins, Colo., to spend the remainder of the summer with Mrs. Curfman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Petty. They plan to be joined later by Mr. Curfman and return to Maryville about September 1.

FOR A "PAGEANT OF MISSOURI"

CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY OF STATE OBSERVED AUG. 8-20

MANY FEATURES PLANNED

An Official Celebration To Be Held In Connection With State Fair

Sedalia, June 22.—August 10, one hundred years age, Missouri was admitted to the union. In commemoration of the event, she is celebrating with a centennial exposition this year. The official state-wide celebration will be held in Sedalia, August 8 to 20, in connection with the Missouri State Fair.

Missouri is really more than 100 years old. Two hundred and thirty-nine years ago, April 9, 1682, the French voyager and explorer, La Salle, took possession of Missouri in the country called "Louisiana," which he claimed in the name of the king of France. The territory was sold to the United States December 20, 1803. In 1804, congress divided the territory in two parts, Upper and Lower Louisiana.

In June, 1812, Missouri was organized as a territory with an assembly and governor William Clark was the first territorial governor, from 1813 to 1820. In 1818, Missouri applied for admission as a state. Two years of bitter controversy in which were evolved the "Dred Scott Decision" and the "Missouri Compromise", followed. Finally, after three years of struggle, Missouri was officially admitted to the union August 10,1821. The capital was then in St. Louis and Alexander McNair wa sthe first governor. The seat of government was later moved to St. Charles, and in 1826 was removed to Jefferson City.

Pageant To Show Growth

"The Pageant of Missouri," which represents in fifteen episodes the growth of Missouri from a frontier community to a great sovereign state, will be one of the biggest features of the centennial and will depict all the important episodes in Missouri history. This historical spectacle, presented every night of the first week, will have a gorgeous scenic setting, with wonderful lighting effects. More than five thousand characters, attired in costumes representative of the period of Missouri history, will appear in the pageant.

Thirty scenic artists arrived in Sedalia last week, and have turned one of the immense fair buildings into a giant studio where they are at work with paint and canvas, building the elaborate scenery fo rthe pageant. Missouri's history has been carefully studied in connection with the work. Important episodes, events and places of historical significance have been included in the presentation. Reheasals of the pageant have already started, and will be continued until the production is ready for presentation at the centennial.

Invitation is extended to all natives and former residents of Missouri throughout the country to return to Missouri in August and attend their mother state's big birthday party. Letters are being received daily at the Centennial offices here from former Missourians everywhere. Special trains are coming from many communities— the district record being held thus far by special train from Los Angeles. Centennial organizations have been formed in states and communities where former Missourians are numerous and thousands of their members are planning to attend the centennial.

Governors' Descendants' Day

There have been fifty-two governors of Missouri. They have approximately one thousand living descendants. All of these have been asked to be guests of the Centennial Commission "Descendants' day", August 9, when a special program will be held in their honor.

Monday, August 8, President Harding will press an electric button in Washington and throw open the gates of the exposition. Four regiments of Missouri National Guardsmen will conduct Governor Hyde, Lieut-Gov. Hiram Lloyd and other prominent state officials to the fair grounds, where they will officially open all exhibits.

Wednesday, August 10, President Harding is expected to visit the exposition. He is scheduled to make an address. It is expected that Genral Pershing, Rear Admiral Robert E. Coontz, Gen. E. H. Crowder and other prominent Missourians will be present also.

Two hundred and fifty thousand Centennial half dollars will be struck by the United States mint at Washington in commemoration of event. On one side will be the state seal of Missouri and on the other a pioneer's head, with the words, "Missouri Centennial 1821-1921." The coin was designed by Robert Aitken of New York medalist and sculptor. The coins will be issued in change for admissions at the gate of the exposition.

Exhibit Of Relics

To the pioneer settlers of Missouri who crossed the Mississippi more than one hundred years ago and endured all the sufferings and hardships of a primitive country, goes the credit for early progress of the state. Relics, antiques and articles of historical significance, used by the pioneers, will make an interesting historical collection at the exposition. The centennial commission has provided for a historical exhibits department and offers $704 in prizes for the best collections of relics exhibited. The public is invited to enter articles of historical value.

Sedalia is busily preparing for the accomodation of visitors. The bureau of information of the chamber of commerce is listing available rooms in private homes. "Every home in Sedalia will be thrown open for your comfort and entertainment", said Mayor F. F. Hatton. Lodges, churches and school-houses will operate large dinning halls to feed the visitors.

WHY DOES SHE LOOK SO OLD?

This question has been asked about many a woman under thirty, who has married and taken upon herself the cares of a house and young children.

When a woman is suffering from female weakness, bearing down pains, head and back ache and nervous irritation, it is well nigh impossible to attend to her duties and retain the charm and freshness of youth. Must she then struggle on toward the inevitable nervous breakdown or premature old age?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from such a fate. Thousands of grateful letters from such women testify to the merits of this wonderful root and herb medicine for female ills.—Adv.

PARIS FASHION GOSSIP ABOUT MILADIES' WARDROBE

White kid or bucksin low shoes are the only proper ones to wear with pale organdie dresses. Some of the smartest models are frequenty decorated with pipings of black patent leather. The double starp fastening is the most popular this season.

Exceedingly smart the wide scarfs with long silk fringes. These scarfs may to-day be used as a belt on a light Summer dress, yet to-morrow will serve as sole garniture on a large floppy garden hat.

Huge organdie flowers placed at the proper angle will transform a very simple but well cut frock into a thing of beauty. The Summer silk tailleurs are divided into two classes —those with exceedingly short loose box coats and those with coats reaching way down to the very hem of the skirt. All the skirts are simple, with but a very little fulness at the sides. White linen bordered with strips of color makes delightful Summer suits. Pongee is very popular. A charming combination consists of a "melange" of jade green and citron pongee. Foulard also makes a number of very effective Summer suits.

BIG TAX CUTS APPROVED BY SENATE COMMITTEE

Decreases the Income Rate to 1 Per Cent With Increased Exemptions.

Jefferson City, June 22.—Big reductions in state taxes are provided for in bills with amendments approved yesterday by the senate committee on ways and means. Several of the bills were prepared by the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce.

The committee recommended the state income tax be reduced from 1½ per cent to 1 per cent and exemptions for married persons increased from $2,000 to $3,000. Exemptions for unmarried persons are to remain at $1,000. The bill permits deductions from revenues up to 15 per cent for charitable purposes.

To permit taxpayers to obtain the benefit of the reduced income tax rate for all of 1921, a provision in the bill fixes the rate for the last half of this year one-half of 1 per cent. After that it is to be 1 per cent.

The corporation franchise tax bill, permitting the deduction of liabilities from the surplus and reducing the rate, also was approved by the committee.

The committee recommended that the bill and pension levy authorized by the voters last November be reduced from 2 to 1 cent.

Recommendations were made for reductions also in other state levies.

GAYNOR CITY NEWS

Wanted—A few good hands with hoes in the Gaynor vicinity to help chop off the many weeds in the garden and other places that have been left to the women folks. Being abundanly blessed with refreshing rains, the growth of weeds is amazing.

The prospects for good corn crops were never better at this time of the year on the Gaynor City ridge than it is now. Also the wheat will soon be in shock if the weather will permit.

The small pox scare is a thing of the past in this locality or at least one would naturally think so to see the crowd attending the childrens exercises last Sunday night. The little showers Sunday afternoon made the roads still better for cars and they came from far and near. We saw some familiar faces from other towns. Dr. and Mrs. John Nigh from Sheridan were out, and as Dr. Nigh is a Gaynor home grown boy, his face looked good to many of the Gaynorites. Also Bert Hart and family from near Grant were back with smiling faces having moved away last March after spending their childhood days in and around the old home town. It sure looked good to us to see them.

We are glad to note that Mrs.Eliza Sparks, who has been having the small pox, is on the road to recovery and will soon be out from quarantine. It is hard to have to stay at home when one is sick, but Oh' Poor Fay, to think of having to stay at home and not a bit sick. We all sympathize with her. So that surely will be of some comfort.

Mrs. Robert Nigh had quite a painful accident last week. While washing she ran a needle in one of her fingers, a piece about an inch long breaking off in her finger. It was necessary to go to Dr. John Nigh to get it removed. We understand the finger is not causing much trouble and will soon be O. K.

Delmar New and family visited his grandmother at Grant City last Sunday. The old lady is in very poor health, and is 86 years old, not really sick but gradually wearing out. She says she is just waiting for the good Lord to come to take her to his home above. What a blessed thot to be ready.

Otho Ulmer, wife and son, Lane, visited in the Joe Ulmer home Sunday, going over after Sunday School, in good time for dinner and going with a little more speed than they did thirty years ago.

Mrs. Bell Murdock and daughter Bonnie, left last Monday evening for their home in North Platte, Neb., after spending two weeks in the homes of her sister and two brothers, Mrs. Claud Thomas, and W. E. and Alva Sparks, and other relatives and friends. Mr. Murdock came to return home with them. Their son, Lester, will stay in the home of his Aunt, Mrs. Claud Thomas and assist in the farm work, during the summer vacation.

Those in need of fresh rain water will do well to be supplied with tanks tubs, buckets, and barrels under the down spout on Friday evening, June 24, for you all know that we have a real pour-down whenever we Gaynor ladies plan an ice cream social. But come any way. We always have a good time. Don't forget the date, June 24.

Glad to see our Sunday School gaining gradually, there being 50 out last Sunday. It seems good to see Miss Verna Cort home again. We are also glad to see the tiny tots out to Sunday School. Their sweet faces shine like so many sunbeams. There is a good time coming for the children who attend Sunday School.

The Gaynor Industrial Society will meet on Wednesday, June 29. All interested are invited to meet with us.

Church services will be on July 3rd at 11 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Husbands had for their Saturday night and Sunday guests their children from Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Noland, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Cort and daughter, Verna, ate Sunday dinner with them.
